[FROM OUR SUNDAY'S EDITION.]

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 31.—A meeting of the War Democrats at Tammany Hall, last night, was addressed by Gen Blair and S. S. Cox. Letters were received from Gens. McClellan, W. F. Smith and McQuaid.

Over one hundred drunkards and other convicts were released from the tombs, yesterday, by Judge Downing, and advised to register.

The registration in Brooklyn, up to last night, was 63 391.

Superintendent Kennedy has issued instructions to the Metropolitan Police enjoining them especially as to their duties in preventing fraudulent votes. He directs them to arrest every one who votes or attempts to vote illegally, and in case of the arrest being made or a warrant of a Board of Election, the Inspectors to hold the accused party until the votes are finally canvassed.

A London special says that France, England Prussia and Russia have not yet answered the application made for the immediate recognition of the affairs in Spain. The answer of Lord Stanley to the Minister to Spain was: "It is said that the English Chancellory was in the habit of recognising provincial governments, and that this would be done only when a permanent government would have been established and sanctioned by the voice of the nation represented by you."

The Cortez Constantinople special says: The Turkish Government has issued a circular to foreign diplomats there that, although exceptional cases like that of Farragut had been made, yet no war vessels would be allowed to pass the Dardanelles. The American Minister protested against the decision.

TRIBUNE'S SPECIAL.

NEW ORLEANS, October 30.—After investigation it is found that the negroes in St. Bernard parish killed no women or children, as reported, and but one man—who had just killed two negroes. About fifty negroes were killed in that parish. A reign of terror exists.

To-day the Attorney-General obtained a writ enjoining Mayor Conway from organizing the rebel police.

Gen. Rousseau has been instructed by the Secretary of War that he cannot avoid the responsibility of preserving peace. The city is now quiet. The Democratic press is growling over the result.

The Times and Bulletin demand the Mayor and Council to resign because they failed to dispossess the Metropolitan police.

Only two colored men were killed here. Several houses were sacked last night

The arms falsely reported to have been destroyed from the steamer Hesper, near Memphis, are here in possession of the P. W. C.

WASHINGTON.

LOUISVILLE, October 31.—The Journal's Washington special says that in a conversation with a prominent gentleman on Thursday last, the latter said the President would not vote at the election, and that in the present condition of affairs he considered it his duty to remain neutral, although it was of the highest importance that the financial policy should be settled on a firm basis, and this could not be done until affairs in the South assumed another aspect. Upon the question of the tariff he believed that the Democratic theory was the correct one, and in time would prevail. He prophesied that Grant's election to the Presidency would inevitably result in the disruption and disorganization of the Republican party, out of which class would spring a party that would meet the living issues squarely, before Grant has been President one year. He expects to see one-half of the House of Representatives arrayed against whatever Grant's policy may be.

WASHINGTON, October 31.—General orders have been issued from the Headquarters of the Army, by command of Gen. Grant, publishing to the army by direction of the President, the provisions of the constitution and laws of the United States, in relation to the election for President and Vice-President of the United States, together with an act of Congress prohibiting all persons engaged in military or naval service, from interfering in any general or special election in any State. By direction of the President, the Army Retiring Board, now in session in New York, will be dissolved as soon as it completes the cases under examination, and a board to be composed of the following officers is ordered to convene in that city on the ninth of November, for examination of disabled officers: Bvt. Major Gens. Irvin, McDowell, Silas Casey, and J. M. McIntosh, Bvt. Brig. Gens. R. Wood and W. J. Sloan.

The President has proclaimed a treaty with the Sacs and Foxes of Mississippi, by which they cede to the United States all their lands, in return for which ample compensation, and a tract of land is set aside in the Indian country, south of Kansas, for their future home.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 31.—Last evening before the injunction from the Fifth District Court was served on the Mayor he had appointed Robert Desmond Chief of Police, with instructions to demand the office and sue out a quo warranto in case of refusal. These instructions he has complied with.

Gen. Steadman has to-day tendered his unqualified resignation as Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police, which was accepted. Geo. L. Cain is acting Superintendent pro tem.

The Police Commissioners stated this evening that they intend to appoint a Superintendent on the recommendation of the merchants.

Gen. Rousseau, by request, last night visited the club room of the Democrats. The club which was most prominent in the troubles with the negroes, and in which considerable feeling still exists on account of the death and wounding of several of their members.

In a short speech Rousseau warned them that the responsibility for all outrages and disorders in New Orleans was laid on his shoulders, and that he looked to them to keep the peace. He said he felt it his duty to tell them the law must be obeyed, and that every man who has the right should vote unmolested on election day. Gen. Rousseau was enthusiastically received. The Club pledged themselves to obey his wishes.

During the recent troubles the presence of a few United States uniforms has always been sufficient to restore order. Rousseau's force of troops in the city at no time exceeded a few hundred men.

FOREIGN.

LIVERPOOL, October 31.—A letter from the City of Mexico of the 10th inst., states that a controversy among the Treasury officials leads to the statement on the part of one of them, that there is a deficiency of six million dollars in the revenue during the last fiscal year.

The Governor of Vera Cruz has signified his intention of resigning, on account of the pardon of Gen. Dominiquez.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HAVANA.

HAVANA, October 31.—A fight has taen place in Jalasco. Two hundred Pronunciamentos attacking seventeen Government troops with cries of viva Santa Anna.

A letter from Hayti confirms former reports of the bombardment of Jeretuis, the result of the revolt of the women and the indignation of the people at the assistance rendered Salnave by Americans.

BOSTON, October 31.—A dispatch from Georgetown, Massachusetts, says Kilpatrick tried to address a political meeting there last night, but was hooted and insulted, and compelled to leave the stand.

CHRISTIAN UNITY.

What the Ritual is Desire to Accomplish.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Your judicious columns have, during the past week, brought the subject of the reunion of Christendom several times to the attention of your readers.

The Encyclical Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius the IX, as well as the movement among the Episcopalians and Presbyterians, have been brought before us. As the Church of "the Blessed Virgin" had its corner stone laid on our Lord's words, "Father grant that these may be one, as thou and I are one," I am anxious that the controversies in your columns during the same week may not be laid to my charge, and will ask you to publish some extracts from letters of sympathy sent me, to show that in seeming to resist the Bishop's authority, I am only heeding the voice of the Church and of a multitude of Churchmen whose noble hearts not only go with us in the trial through which we are passing, but are also yearning for that union which can only come of Truth, Righteousness and Holiness.

An old Churchman from a neighboring city writes as follows:

NASHVILLE, TENN., October, 1868.

My Dear Friend:

I need not say how my heart warmed with full sympathy in this your hour of trial, when your soul is called upon to undergo the severest trials in fulfilling your solemn duty as a true and faithful Priest, through the channel of an attractive ritual as taught by the ancient landmarks of our Holy Mother, the Church. I am and have been greatly surprised at the manner in which the Bishop has acted toward you, for instead of upholding and strengthening your hands, by his influence in your endeavors to restore the long hidden treasures of the Anglican services (and which he is in full sympathy with), he should thus pander to the Puritanical prejudices of a few, who, no doubt, with justice think that his course of conduct in your case is full of inconsistencies. God knows, as does the Bishop and all Catholic-minded men, that the great sin of the so called Christians of the present day is to lower and degrade the High mysteries of man's salvation, instead of manifesting a Holy reverence and fear for the Sacrament of the Altar: the Body and Blood of our Savior, which is verily and indeed taken and received by the faithful; why, therefore, should we not adorn and beautify God's altar with the costliest gifts: for He is on the alter or He is not. If not, then our services are a mockery and a sham; but that He is there, no right-minded man or woman can doubt, for Christ has Himself said the amazing words: "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man ye have no life in you."

Let the Church continue in her present lamentable, lifeless condition for a few years longer, and unless some vigorous remedy is applied on the part of her Bishops and Clergy (such as you are now doing), she will become like the Prophet's lodge in a garden of cucumbers—deserted by her true children and ruined by her clergy, yielding for popularity in the eyes of the Church's greatest enemies.

Amidst misrepresentation and reproach, go on in your noble work, leaving the results to Him, who says, "My Kingdom is not of this world."

I am, as ever, your friend, W. H. M.

October 27, 1868.

Rev. J. W. Rogers, Memphis, Tenn.:

My Dear Rogers: * * * * * * * I was an attendant of the services of St. Albans, which I liked from the beginning, and learned to like more and more every time I heard them. When I heard that you intended to start a new parish in Memphis, in which you would endeavor to beautify and to adorn the cold and barren ritual of our church, it greatly pleased me; nor can I tell you with what regret I ascertained that the Bishop had put his foot down on the attempt. What a mistake! * * * * * * *

An English clergyman sends the following from London, where the Lord Bishop of London vowed a year ago that he would starve out Ritualism:

"In addition to the two Eucharistic Lights, which, we are happy to say, are always used in St. Margaret's at the Celebration of the Holy Mysteries, there were six tapers on the retable. As the grand old music of the Catholic Church rolled up towards Heaven, it must have awakened responsive chords in the Angelic choir; and we cannot but believe that, at the Agnus Dei, the glorious vision of the poet was realized:

"The Mystery of Mysteries:
The Angels and Archangels come
On wings of light from out their home
In ranks of glory wheeling:
Our souls shall mix and blend with theirs
In loud, thanksgiving, and prayers,
Before Altar kneeling."

The procession, preceded by a chorister carrying the banner of S. Margaret, entered the church at the west door at nine a.m. singing "Brightly gleams our banner."

And a member of the church resident in Memphis, sends me the following trite and sensible remarks from the New York Citizen of a recent date:

"The striking services in Christ Church, in Fifth avenue, last Sunday morning, may be accepted as a positive advance in the ritualistic movement, and as an indication that elaborate church ceremonials are no longer to be confined to St. Albans in this city. The service on this occasion was entirely choral, with surpliced choristers, a processional and recessional hymn, a grand march through the aisles, and a careful report informs us that 'the whole service, with its dignity and solemnity, its banners, and cross, and burning candles, its beautifully modulated music and moving lines of youthful participants, was most impressive.' Of course it was, or the fulfillment would have fallen far short of the intention. It was designed to be impressive.

"And in plain language the precise object of all ceremonial, religious or secular, is to make an impression. It would be far from our intention, and certainly from our desire, to write a word which would wound the religious sympathies of any person of any sect. But if we deal plainly with these matters we must ask ourselves what, after all, is the real meaning of the growth in our day, not so much of religion, as of the outward expressions and exponents of religion? This growth is seen in the increased splendor of our church edifices of all denominations, in the elaborate interior decorations, in the magnificent music, and in the general devotion to details which go to make the ceremonials 'impressive' We have made in a very few years an immense advance from the clap-board 'meeting house,' which a profane writer classes as 'less like God's house than God's barn' to the superb structures which now everywhere raise their towers and spires to Heaven. The immediate and inevitable effect of this architectural advance is an elaboration of the ceremonials. Fine clothes prompt fine manners. Cathedral-like church edifices compel cathedral services; and so we advance almost imperceptibly, and especially in the Protestant Episcopal Church, where every apparent innovation is only a revival of some disused ceremonial, and where even the most pronounced position taken by the priest can find a precedent. The 'Liturgical Service of the School of Catechumens' in Christ Church last Sunday was only a revival of an old and permitted service.

"What next? When Unitarians celebrate Christmas Day, and Congregationalists put flowers in their fonts at Easter, Episcopacy is pushed forward so that it is almost forced to tread on the trail of the scarlet robes. Nor do we believe that an advance in the splendor of religious ceremonials in any denomination is the 'dangerous thing' which some people assume it is. The symbols are not the substance, and yet they have their immediate uses as well as meanings. You can catch the eye far more readily than you can the ear. If the services are 'impressive' they will make an impression. An appeal to the mere esthetic sense may go beyond and touch the heart. These hints may not be thrown away upon the pronounced people who are most opposed to pronounced ritualism. It is always well enough to assume that things are pretty much what they really are."

Thus it appears, Messrs. Editors, that in my humble work for Christian union, my heart beats in unison with many others throughout the world.

Respectfully, J. W. ROGERS, Priest of the Church of the Blessed Virgin.

THE NEWS

Tamberlink, the great tenor, presented a gigantic laurel wreath to Serrano at Madrid.

A New York jeweler has made a gold chain worth one thousand dollars for the next President.

Carlyle is not writing a life of George III., as has been reported, and never intends to. It is even doubtful if he publishes any new books during his lifetime.

Judge Benedict, of New York, yesterday delivered a charge to the grand jury, relative to the crime of fraudulent naturalization, similar to Judge Blatchford's.

The Wallachian police have a way of eliciting testimony from refractory witnesses. They hang them up with hot eggs under their armpits and then drive splinters under their finger nails.

New York will be full of celebrities about the holidays. Miss Braddon, Charles Reade, Hans Anderson, Max Muller, Anthony Trollope, Mrs Cushman, Miss Hosmer, and Miss Emma Stebbens will be among the throng.

Massachusetts, like Oliver Twist, is always asking for more and she gets it. The Ledger says: "Massachusetts, by continual hammering, has just got $20,000 more of her 'war claims' allowed by the Treasury."

We are informed that the Radicals of Louisiana propose to conduct everything in that state on a war basis. In the vicinity of Bunch's Bend a signal gun is fired at eight o'clock every night, and immediately thereafter the Radical negroes assemble at designated points and drill for several hours.

While the Radical leaders have been declaring that the right to vote is an inalienable right, they have denied the right of suffrage to the entire people of three States, and are laboring to limit it in all parts of the Union. Is this a party worthy of the support of American freemen?

The Radicals pronounce a national debt a national blessing, and therefore they steal and rob and squander and lavish and scatter just for the country's good. 'Tis their way of showing their patriotism, and the only way in which they ever will show it. Tried by their own test, they are the greatest patriots that the world has ever seen.

The Democrats are struggling for principles which, evolved into a policy, will give the people union, prosperity and peace. The Radicals are struggling for plunder and power at the expense of the people, and through a sacrifice of union, peace and prosperity. Which should the people sustain? Seymour represents the first programme, Grant the last.

The Finances of Hungary are reported to be in a flourishing condition. At the end of the present year a surplus of $2,500,000 will remain in the treasury. This is an unusual circumstance, the expenditures having exceeded the receipts for each of the last eighteen years. In one instance the deficit amounted to $4,500,000. The cause of the present prosperity is attributed to the fine harvest and vine crops.

Two young ladies who recently attempted to inflict the Grecian bend upon Mobile, were followed by a mobile, and so hooted and jeered at that they were forced to seek refuge in a convenient shop. After they had thus retired from public gaze, twenty or more boys deliberately took seats upon the side walk, and calmly awaited the reappearance of the leaders, when they renewed their persecutions.

The Tribune critic says of Offenbach's latest opera, "Geneveive de Brabant," which was produced for the first time in New York Thursday evening, that it "is the most revolting mass of filth that was ever shown on the boards of a reputable place of amusement in this city. It is not merely indecent, but it grovels in a dirty depth even below indecency. No lady can look at it twice without sacrificing her reputation, and no respectable person can look at it at all without feeling degraded by the spectacle."

A very ludicrous faux pas happened in the performance of "La Belle Helene," at the Alhambra, San Francisco, September 22. One of the stately damsels who appears in long clothes in the train of the naughty Orestes, met with a mishap. In fact, her skirts were only prevented falling from her person by slight arrest. As the discomfited fair was retreating, the unsympathetic audience excited her ire by chuckling; whereupon she stayed in her headlong career, and indignantly facing the irreverent scoffers, exclaimed, "You needn't laugh; such a thing might happen to any of you!"

The internal revenue receipts have fallen off fully thirty thousand dollars per day. This indicates a frightful stagnation in business. But this decline is insignificant as compared to that which will occur if the debt be still further increased and the taxation prolonged, as the Radical party desire. The resources of the land will become more and more contracted, and the burden of taxation proportionately heavier and harder to bear. The financial issue is of equal importance to business men and the laboring classes, and they should protect their interests by voting for Seymour and Blair.

It will be remembered by our readers that a few months ago operations were commenced at Hell Gate, New York, for the recovery of the treasure—amounting to something over four millions of dollars in gold—lost by the sinking of the British frigate Huzzar, during the revolutionary war. The place was carefully surveyed and located, and with new and improved diving apparatus, the Wrecking Company commenced work, and their labors have been very successful. Over one hundred tons of iron, used as ballast, and about $500 in gold, found lying here and there about the wreck, have been recovered. They have also ascertained the location of the treasure, which is contained in iron chests, bound with copper. Some five hundred American prisoners went down on the vessel, and the irons with which they were bound, together with pieces of human bone, have also been discovered by the workmen. The company ceased their operations on Saturday for the season, but will renew them early in the Spring, when it is thought that the job will be completed in short order.

ELECTION TICKETS.

Members of the Democratic Party in the Eighth Congressional District will be supplied with Election Tickets, in any quantities, on application to JESSE W. PAGE, Jr., W. R. HUNT, or any other member of the Democratic Committee of the County of Shelby.

DEMOCRATIC FINANCE COMMITTEE.

We are authorized to announce a meeting of the above Committee this morning, at 9 o'clock, at the office of JESSE W. PAGE, jr., 289 Main street, corner of Madison. It is hoped by the chairman, Mr. W. R. HUNT, that there will be a full attendance.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRACY TO-NIGHT.

We direct the attention of the friends of the Democracy to a notice in our local columns of a meeting to take place to-night at Stillman Hall, commencing at 7½ o'clock. The hall should be packed on this occasion. It is the closing one of the canvass, and should be a rousing effort. The clubs should march to the hall in procession, and, if possible, in torchlight procession. The Democracy, every man, should be out.

THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

The proclamation of Mayor LEFTWICH, published in another column, will command the attention of our readers. We hope and urge that the discretion he counsels will characterize our citizens on election day. Quietly, but firmly, they should perform their duty—depositing their votes and assisting in the furtherance of their party purposes, by securing all the votes they can, but without discussion or angry debates calculated to lead to public disturbance. The Democracy should illustrate on that day their ancient prestige for law and order.

DAVE NUNN THE ENEMY OF THE IRISH PEOPLE.

On the 18th of February last, there was introduced into the House of Representatives, a Bill for the relief of American citizens abroad. It appropriated $50,000, or so much thereof as might be necessary, to be used at the discretion of and under the direction of the Secretary of State, for the relief of the personal wants, or for the return to this country of American citizens who were destitute of means; who were or might be imprisoned in foreign countries without trial, or acquitted on trial.

This Bill was introduced with the direct purpose of aiding the Irish patriots who were at that time being arrested as Fenians by the British authorities, and held, many of them unjustly, for trial by packed juries of Irish tories. It was well known to the Government of the United States, that not only were Irishmen seized and treated as felons, who were but simple visitors to relatives and friends in Ireland, but that many were arrested, confined and ultimately sentenced to transportation as felons, whose only crime consisted in their nationality and former connection with the Confederate or Federal army. Anxious to aid these and to prevent, so far as pecuniary help could do so, the imprisonment of others whose trial was then pending, the Congress of the United States voted the above amount, but not without the strong protest of Mr. DAVID A. NUNN, then representing this District in Congress. On the only occasion when he might have been of service to a race whose sufferages he asks, and whose heroic efforts for freedom have won the praises of all classes of people throughout the civilized world, Mr. NUNN showed his estimate of them by voting against a measure for the relief of the most daring and choice spirits of the Fenian band and for many private citizens whose services in the Union army entitled them to so much help in their hour of need. Remember this, Irishmen, when you vote to-morrow.

WHAT FATHER RYAN SAYS.

In his paper, the Banner of the South, the Rev. Father RYAN, the distinguished author of the "Conquered Banner," and a priest of the Catholic Church, of great purity of character and exalted worth, thus speaks of such a thing as an Irish Radical:

"We have charity enough for a Northern American Radical, or a Protestant "Radical; but none whatever for an "Irishman or a Catholic who embraces "the political creed of that party. They "have no excuse, no pretext. They "have seen their own land deluged with "the blood of martyrs, their religion "proscribed, their priests hunted down "as if they were dogs, their property "confiscated, their schools closed up, "their children deprived of the means of "education, their families starved to "death, their leading men hung or banished for no other crime than loving "Ireland and glorious old St. Patrick too "much. They have seen and felt all "this; and to-day they see Radicalism "preaching and teaching the same bigotry and intolerance that led to all their "woes and sufferings. They see in "GRANT a hater of their religion, in "COLFAX a persecutor of their race and "creed; in BRECKINRIDGE, the Radical "apostle, a would be destroyer of foreigners and Catholics—in all the leaders and journals of that party the lifelong intolerants and persecutors of "everything foreign and Roman Catholic."

* * * * * * * *

"They are not wanted. We don't "want them to stand among the names "of pure women, and true men, and innocent children of the South, who are "so faithful and devoted to the 'lost "cause;' we don't want them to stand "among the names of the sincere and "earnest Catholics and true-hearted "Irishmen, who love principle better "than place, and would not disgrace their "religion or their native land by sacrificing the interests and the property of "their adopted country. Yes, let them "go! and in the condemnation of their "own conscience let them dwell. Perhaps they may, ere long, open their "eyes to the folly and wickedness of their "course, and repent of the evil things "which they have done. If not, let "them forswear their faith and nationality. The anomaly is too great—too "striking to exist. They cannot be Irish "Catholics and American Radicals. "They must give up one or the other, "and the sooner the better."

EVERY man has work to do at the polls to-morrow, and every man who desires to be true to himself and his neighbors will be up and out early to perform it. Every vote polled for the Democratic candidates is a vote for liberty and law and against license, lawlessness and outrage.

CHEERING NEWS FROM CHICAGO.

In our telegraph column this morning we publish a special telegram to the APPEAL from the Democratic Central Committee of Illinois, at Chicago, which we think will have the effect to cheer the despondent and those who shrug their shoulders, shake their heads wisely, and poo-poo the chances of Democratic success. It will be seen that the strikingly plain way of stating the truth, adopted by Mr. SEYMOUR during his tour in the northwest, has had the desired effect upon the intelligent business public of that busy region. The figures of DETMAR, endorsed so well by President JOHNSON, as they are explained by Gov. SEYMOUR are producing changes in the Radical ranks of the Northwest, and among classes that usually lead in the formation of public opinion. The discrimination in favor of the Eastern States in the distribution of National Bank favors, and the consequent tribute exacted by New England from all her sister States, is a fact so patent, so intelligent of the future dependence of the great producing section of the country, that these men of the Northwest are arrested in their career as Radicals, and are thinking whether a change in governmental control is not necessary in order to a fair and equitable distribution of its financial favors. With these men, to think is to act. With them minutes count as precious as gold. They know that but two days intervene before the result of the past five months struggle will be an accomplished fact. Therefore they are taking counsel of one another, and are boldly declaring their purpose to upport the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency—the man who has enlightened them as to the existing state of the grand financial monopoly, and its tendencies to impoverish the Northwest, Southwest and the South, in favor of those who, in Congress, are the representatives of the swindling scheme.

We were satisfied, after reading Mr. SEYMOUR'S Buffalo speech, that such would be its effect upon the shrewd and intelligent people he has addressed—a people who, however allied by descent or by leavening with New England stock, are yet true to the local interests they have created, and do not care to see the accumulations of their rapid development eaten up in heavy rates of interest, paid as toll to bankers and capitalists who reap additional profits from the Government on currency for which they should pay instead of being paid. Had such a line of argument been pursued from the first, as was suggested, to our knowledge, by Gov. SEYMOUR himself, doubt would long ago have changed to certainty, and the victory of October been complete by the election of all the Democratic nominees. But, "better late than never." Perhaps it is as well it is as it is. But for the opportunity availed of by the great statesman the country would have lost a clear and a concise statement of our financial condition that is declined more than all other efforts combined to rally to the cause of Democracy the thinking working men, who by the dispatch to which we direct attention, are at the last moment volunteering in support of SEYMOUR and BLAIR and the Democratic party, as the only party through whom the country can be rescued from financial ruin and commercial disaster.

PRICE OF THE APPEAL REDUCED.

Hereafter we will furnish, to regular subscribers, the DAILY APPEAL at $10 per annum, and the mammoth WEEKLY APPEAL (the oldest paper in the Southwest) at $2 50 per annum. Mindful of the demand for cheap newspapers, and determined that the public of this region shall have no excuse for an exclusive patronizing of journals published in other cities, we make a reduction that renders our daily and weekly issues as cheap as any papers published in the country.

Of the WEEKLY APPEAL we can confidently assert that at $2 50 a year it is the cheapest paper published in the North as well as South. In size the sheet is 33 by 52 inches, comprising 40 columns of reading matter, embracing literary selections, poetry, all the news of the day, telegraphic and local reports, and commercial and river reports. We challenge the press of the United States to produce a cheaper paper at this price; and yet those subscribing in clubs of two or more may enjoy it at $2 per annum. Now is the time to subscribe. Those subscribers whose terms of subscription have expired should renew at once. Postmasters acting as agents will be allowed the usual discount of 10 per cent. on single subscriptions. Send in your names gentlemen.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The Finance Committee of the county will to-day call upon you and ask of you a money subscription to defray the expenses of the election to-morrow. Familiar as you are with the gentlemen of the Committee, it is not necessary for us to more than remind you of the fact to insure the prompt and liberal response the work in which the Democracy is engaged demands and deserves at your hands. Subscribe liberally; and on Tuesday go to work with a will. The same energy and tact that characterize our business men in their ordinary avocations, if displayed on election day, will make assurance doubly sure for us.

IF you want a standing army to crush out the liberties of the people of the neighboring Southern States, if you want a Freedman's Bureau through which millions are squandered, if you want to work to maintain the lazy negro Radicals of the South, if you want to sanction a Congress that increases the national debt in time of peace, while, at the same time, the taxes are piled up mountain high, then vote for GRANT. But if you want the reverse of this—taxes reduced, army reduced, and Freedmati's Bureau disbanded, vote for SEYMOUR and BLAIR.

WE DESIRE to impress upon the managers of the Associated Press that the Democratic Journals of Memphis do not wish to pay for "Tribune specials." We have no inclination to advertise any of the Radical papers, and, least of all, to be made the means of publishing to the world their lying statements of Southern affairs—of which, being on the ground, we are better informed than the penny-a liners hired by those papers to malign and misrepresent our people.

READER, be at the polls early to-morrow and deposit your vote so that you may have the whole day to work in the good cause of the Democracy.

ONE of the Radical election dodges has turned up in the shape of a rumor that Dr. LEFTWICH had resigned his candidacy for Congress in this District in favor of NUNN. Such a statement has found credence and currency in Tipton county and, we believe, at Brownsville. There is not the shadow of truth in it. Utterly without foundation, it scarcely needed the contradiction our worthy Mayor gives it, in a circular published this morning on our local page.

SEYMOUR IN THE FIELD.

Tremendous Effect of His Speeches in Chicago---Great Enthusiasm.

The Radicals Knocked from Time.

Special Dispatch to the Appeal.]

CHICAGO, November 1, 1868.—The effect of Gov. Seymour's speeches, delivered on his late tour and here, has been tremendous upon the whole business community. The speech at Columbus, especially, has been the chief topic of conversation, on 'change and at the Board of Trade for three days past. A vast number of the Republican party have been convinced by his reasoning that the prosperity of the Northwest depends upon the success of the policy announced by him.

Senators Trumbull and Morton have endeavored to answer the arguments of Gov. Seymour, but, in the opinion of commercial men, they have utterly failed.

These speeches will cost the Radicals thousands of votes, and will give us Chicago and Indiana.

[Signed] ST. CLAIR SOUTHERLAND,
GEORGE W. MAXWELL,
HIRAM M. CHASE,
Democratic Central Committee.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 1.—Mayor Hoffman yesterday issued a proclamation setting forth that unscrupulous, designing and dangerous men had contrived to prevent naturalized citizens from voting, under pretense that their papers had been fraudulently obtained. The United States Marshal is declared to have appointed swarms of special deputies to take their place at the polls for the purpose of overruling voters, and otherwise interfering to prevent a fair election.

Evidence is said to be accumulating which shows a determination on the part of certain men so to excite the masses of the people in the city opposed to them as to incite them to acts of disorder and violence. The Mayor calls upon them to keep quiet under the most aggravating circumstances, and offers a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of any person charged with violation of the election laws of the State, or who may be convicted for having obstructed or intimidated any man in the exercise of his right as an elector.

A requisition has been made by Gov. Geary, of Pennsylvania, on Gov. Fenton for the delivery of Peter Norton, Florence Scannel, Lewis Baker, and several other Democratic politicians of this city, charged with having violated the election laws of Pennsylvania last election.

The United States Marshal, Murray, has arrested Lewis Cuddenburk, Clerk of Orange county, and two Deputy Clerks, charged with naturalization frauds.

Arrived—Steamship Pennsylvania, from Liverpool, via Queenstown, 15th. Reports that on October 25, latitude 47° 37', longitude 42° 25', she saw a ship of 1060 tons, named Ocean Belle, on fire and abandoned. Her crew had previously been taken off. She burned to the water's edge.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—Chief Justice Carter to-day announced the decision of the Supreme Court for the District, in general term, in the case of Taylor vs. Defrees, in which a special verdict was rendered, giving judgment for the defendant. Judge Olin concurred in the conclusion but differed somewhat as to the practice. Taylor, at the breaking out of the rebellion, was a major in the marine corps, and went South and took an active part in the war. His house was sold under the confiscation law, the purchaser to hold the same during Taylor's life time. Defrees bought it at public sale. Taylor sought to recover it, but the decision just rendered confirms Defrees in possession.

A large number of persons in the employ of the Government have left here within a few days for the West and North for the purpose of voting next Tuesday. At least 2500 railroad tickets have been sold, and to-morrow many more will leave Washington for nearer voting localities. The cars to-night were crowded with voters of both parties.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, November 1.—It is reported that slight shocks of an earthquake have been felt in Leamington, in Warwick county.

A formal dissolution of Parliament will probably take place this week. The writs for election will be issued immediately thereafter and elections will commence three days from date of writs.

The Khan of Khokand has sent an embassy to St. Petersburg to make offers of friendship and submission to the Czar.

MADRID, November 1.—The Provisional Government is about to send reinforcements to Cuba. The city of Havana has been authorized to borrow 10 000,000 crowns for the completion of Isabella canal.

Belgium has recognized the Provisional Government.

LONDON, November 1.—Serious riots took place in Rotterdam yesterday. Troops were called out, and were obliged to fire upon the rioters. It is reported that several persons were killed and many wounded. A large number of arrests have been made.

FRANKFORT, November 1.—Five-twenty bonds excited. Transactions large and prices higher, quoted at 79½.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 31.—There was a Democratic torch light procession here to-night—a fine affair, 6000 people in line, who kept up constant cheering. But little enthusiasm was manifested by spectators in the streets along the route. It was generally dark, only here and there being an illuminated building. The procession was an hour in passing the corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets. Everything, so far, is quiet, no trouble apprehended to night. The civil authorities have adopted vigorous measures to prevent riotous proceedings, either before or after election day. The police force is greatly augmented, and fears of a disturbance have considerably lessened. The Democratic Committee and leading Democratic citizens published cards in this morning's papers, disowning the disgraceful proceedings of Tuesday night when the attack was made on the Republican procession.

FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, NOV. 1.—Maj.-Gen. Woolemberg, of the Austrian army, arrived here this morning from Washington with letters to Maj. Gen. Barry from the Secretary of War. He was received with military honors, and reviewed troops, examined ordinance and defenses, and was entertained by Gen. Barry during his stay. He leaves to-morrow for Richmond and Petersburg.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, November 1.—The following has been received by the press of this city: "Huntsville, Ala., 1st—300 Klu-klux were parading about last night while a Republican Mass-Meeting was in progress. 50 or 60 shots were fired. Judge Horton, and a market man was mortally wounded, all Republicans. Intense excitement prevails."

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

CAIRO, November 1.—Up—Belle Memphis, 9 p.m. Down—Legal Tender, 10 a.m.; Thompson Dean, 6 p.m. River stationary. Weather clear.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MEMPHIS, Nov. 1, 1868.

On the 3d instant, the day for the election of our National Executive and other officers, it is earnestly recommended that citizens and voters generally exercise unusual forbearance, both in manner and speech, giving not the shadow of a provocation for a violation of the peace and good order of the occasion.

The Police are requested to enforce rigidly the law forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors on the day of election, and to watch vigilantly for and repress all infractions of the peace.

The military force of the United States is requested to hold itself in readiness, and if the occasion requires, its aid will be invoked for the peace and dignity of the city.

It is, however, confidently believed that no force will be required, but that the bearing of every citizen will be dignified and discreet, as if each were himself a duly appointed officer for the preservation of the peace, to the end that life and property may be preserved and good order prevail throughout the day.

BENZINE TOO MUCH.—Mr. Finlay, who dwells in the neighborhood of Raleigh, came in town Saturday and had the uncommon complaint of having more money than he knew what to do with. He went up to a lady's "house" to find some one to help him spend it. By some means or other he was knocked senseless and robbed of his money, and in this condition was found by the First District police, who kindly took him in and took care of him for the night.

"PISENENED."—William Henry, a big buck Smith man, who smelled like a box of civet, imbibed too much eau de triomphe night before last, and imagining himself Barbour Lewis, went to the house of a white lady in the suburbs, and invited himself to supper. She could not see it in those gig-lamps, and refused him admission. Following the teachings of Barcour, he drew his six shooter and commenced firing through the door. On the second shot officer Rice came to the rescue, arrested him, and gave him dry lodgings in the first district station. He will have a hearing this morning.

WE CALL the attention of our readers this morning to the advertisement in another column of the sale, on November 2d, of the large and valuable property in Louisville, Ky., known as the Candle and Soap Factory of Cornwall & Bro., together with the good will of the factory. The property is to be sold under a decree of the Louisville Chancery Court on account of the death of one of the partners. The business of this factory has been known throughout many States for twenty years, and from this may be easily inferred the value of the good will. To any one seeking to invest in a safe, profitable and already established manufacturing business, this presents rare inducements.

SUICIDE.

A Varieties' Waiter Girl Fatally Shoots Herself---A Mystery.

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock, the attention of the neighbors was attracted by hearing a heavy shot fired, apparently in the second story of house No. 12 Exchange street. A couple of negro girls gained admission shortly afterward and found a woman in her night clothes, or in a chemise, lying face downward in the door of a bed room, and a man also in dishabille running frantically around the room. The girls raised the woman up from her prostrate position and found that she was desperately wounded in the breast, and was bleeding profusely. As soon as she could speak she told the girls that she had shot herself, and the man reiterated her statement. The girls immediately gave the alarm, and in a minute or so Serg't Finch, of the First District Metropolitan Police, was on hand, and some one dispatched for surgical aid. The wounded woman was discovered by Serg't Finch to be a well-known Varieties' waiter girl or "beer jerker" named Rosa Cole, and the man to be an Italian, named Frank or John Cuneo, with whom she lived as his wife. The woman, although evidently desperately wounded, was able to talk, and said that she had shot herself with a derringer pistol, which she had found on the bureau. The man disclaimed all knowledge of the affair, claiming, we understand, to have been in bed asleep at the time, and to have been waked up by the shot. The woman stated, at first, that it was an accident, but afterwards that she had tried to commit suicide. This latter is far the more probable story, as she has at previous times made attempts on her life. Meanwhile Drs. Taylor and Lynch had been called in, and after examining the wound declared that nothing could be done for her, it being mortal. The ball entered directly in the center of the breast and ranged downward, making a frightful wound. The Doctors, we understand, express some doubts, from the nature and looks of the wound, of it having been made by her own hands, but had expressed no definite opinion to that effect. At five o'clock p m., although still alive, the wounded woman was considered in articulo mortis.

Touching the causes, or the circumstances leading to this act, nothing definite is known. They will, we suppose, be brought out at the Coroner's examination, if not in full, at least partly.

Correspondence.

MEMPHIS, November 1, 1868.

COL. S. B. BEAUMONT, Sup't Metropolitan Police:

As one of the conservators of the peace for Shelby county, I desire to so direct my efforts to preserve order on Tuesday, the 3d inst., as to render the officers acting under me most efficient. As in union there is strength, I propose to co-operate with you in your efforts to enforce your admirable order, published in this morning's papers. Should this offer meet your approval, please notify me at once, that we may meet and make such arrangements as will be most likely to insure success. I heartily approve your intention to disarm all persons going to the polls, and the closing of the drinking saloons, and should your station houses be found too small to hold the offenders arrested for violation of the laws and ordinances in such cases made and provided, I shall be pleased to open the county jail for their accommodation.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. P. CURRY, Sheriff Shelby county.

MEMPHIS, November 1, 1868.

Col. A. P. Curry, Sheriff Shelby county:

Sir: Your communication of this date, offering to co-operate with me on Tuesday next, is received, and I hasten to express my thanks for the very frank and cordial way in which the offer is made, and to promptly accept it. Please meet me at my office to-morrow morning at ten o'clock to arrange details.

I have the fullest confidence in the ability of the civil authorities to preserve order, and take care of the few evil disposed persons who are trying to engender strife; but should there be any indications on the day of election of serious disturbance, I have the assurance from Maj.-Gen. Geo. H. Thomas that a strong military force will be on hand to aid in maintaining the supremacy of the law.

Very respectfully, your obd't serv't,
S. B. BEAUMONT,
Sup't Metropolitan Police.

GEN. W. J. SMITH.

He is Soundly Thrashed by an Old Man of Sixty.

He Submits with the Best Grace Possible.

A Few Disgraceful Items from Smith's War Record.

JACKSON, TENN., November 1, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal: A difficulty transpired here on yesterday evening, which will doubtless be perverted by the Radical party for political purposes, of which some of our friends think I ought to give you a correct version. The facts stated to me come from the most reliable sources, and I am perfectly satisfied of their correctness.

It appears that Mr. E J. Trice, now residing in this county, but during the war lived near Mifflin, in Henderson county, was known to be a man of means and was supposed to have a considerable sum of money about his premises. About the time Gen. W. J. Smith was raiding through that part of the country, he went with a party of his soldiers to Mr. Trice's home, while he was absent, and demanded his money from his family, who refused to deliver it to him, or to tell him where it was. Thereupon they took Mr. Trice's son, Elijah, then about seventeen years of age, and putting a rope around his neck, hung him up until he was nearly choked to death, who nevertheless refused to tell where the money was. Failing to extort the information from Elijah, they then took Miss Sallie Trice, his daughter, then fifteen or sixteen years of age, and served her in the same manner. These children having alternately refused to communicate the place where their father's money was secreted, three ruffians then proceeded to plunder the house of everything valuable they could get hold of.

On yesterday evening, while Smith was here attending a political meeting, Mr Trice happened to be in town, and hearing that Smith was here went to the court house and waited at the door, hoping he would meet him as he came out; but not knowing the redoubtable General, he passed by him and got off without being recognized. Finding that he had escaped him, he then proceeded to the railroad depot and passed through the cars, inquiring for Gen. Smith, when he was pointed out by one of the passengers to him. Trice then went up to Smith, and told him that he had come to punish him for the treatment of his children during the war; not to be uneasy, he did not want to kill him, but only chastise him, and that hereafter he intended to serve him the same way every time he met him. Old man Trice then went for the valorous General, and, from what I can learn, gave him a most terrible thrashing, and although he is upwards of sixty years of age, he used no weapons sed culcibus et pugius. Mr. Trice is a good, quiet citizen, and takes very little part in politics, and every one who knows him says that he would have served the General the same way if he had belonged to the Democratic party. Of one thing there is no question, that politics had nothing whatever to do with the difficulty, and would have occurred at any time when Mr. Trice should meet the opportunity.

Yours in haste, G.

ALL-SOUL'S DAY.

The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed.

To-day is "All-Soul's Day," one celebrated by the Holy Roman Catholic Church throughout the world, in behalf of the souls in purgatory, for whose release the prayers of the faithful are this day offered and masses performed. It is said to have been first introduced into the calendar by Odilon, bishop of Cluny, but was not generally established until the end of the tenth century. Its establishment was deemed of such importance that in the event of its falling on Sunday, it was ordered that it be postponed until Monday, as was the case with other celebrations, but to take place on the previous Saturday, that the souls of the departed might suffer no detriment from the want of the prayers of the Church.

The only cities in the United States where any great attention is paid to the observance of this day are New Orleans, Mobile and the Spanish and French settlements on the Gulf coast, and especially in Florida. In New Orleans the cemeteries to-day are beautifully bedecked with flowers, each tomb and vault hung with immortelles and wreaths of evergreens—ivy, arbor vitæ, cypress, rosemary—intertwined with the most costly and beautiful flowers. Even the poorest and humblest graves are not neglected, and some kind, Christian hand is found to strew marguerites, or place an immortelle upon the last resting place of even the paupers.

This beautiful custom has never been introduced in Memphis, but now that the Catholics have their own cemetery, may we not hope that it will find a home among us?

READ YOUR TICKET!

The Buzzards are Awake---Hawks Watch Them!

In three hours after the tickets to be used by the Democratic and Conservative voters, on Tuesday, were issued on Saturday morning, the Radical committee issued a fac-simile of them, with the exception of placing D. A. Nunn's name for that of Dr. Leftwich. This shows how the rascals are working, and what means they intend to use to deceive voters.

Let every man read his ticket carefully before he votes it, and, above all things, examine the tickets that he gives to his colored voters with the most severe scrutiny. Watch sharp!

IMPORTANT ORDER.

Col. Beaumont Calls for Volunteer Patrolmen.

Peace and Good Order will be Preserved on Election Day.

OFFICE OF SUP'T METROPOLITAN POLICE,
MEMPHIS, TENN., OCTOBER 31, 1868.

Believing that a large portion of the citizens of Shelby county desire a peaceable and quiet election on Tuesday, the 3d proximo, and relying on law and order-loving men of all parties for support in case of need, I have assured Maj.-Gen. Thomas that no additional military force is needed in this county to insure an unobstructed and lawful election.

The numerous polls to be opened in the county render it necessary for me to call for three hundred special patrolmen to assist the regular police force in preserving order, and I hereby request men of character and influence in the community, without regard to party, to come forward and enroll their names on Monday at this office or at either of the station houses. Men who are willing to perform the duty without pay, and for the protection of their own property and families, are preferred, but those claiming it will be allowed the three dollars per day, authorized by law.

The county volunteer police force, now organized, will patrol the various roads leading to Memphis, and promptly arrest all persons coming to the city armed, and the utmost vigilance will be used to detect persons at the polls carrying concealed weapons.

Officers of the police force, whether regular or special, are reminded that it is no part of their duty to act as partizans, or to interfere in any way, to influence the choice of voters in their selection of candidates.

There are violent and indiscreet men who presend to believe that the police force will be used to defeat their favorite candidate, and have constructed pretexts for resistance and advised the dupes who follow their teachings, to disregard police authority. These incendiary teachers are marked, and will be closely watched, and promptly put down when they attempt to carry their threats into execution.

Drinking Saloons will be closed during the day until the polls are closed.

"Let us have peace."

Sup't Met. Police.

THE COMING FALL RACES.

The Horses Which are to Take Part in the Contest.

The arrangements for the coming fall races over the Memphis Association Course are of the most extensive character, and the President, Col. John Donovan, and the Board of Directors, are determined that nothing shall be wanting on their part to make the coming races superior to anything of the kind ever witnessed in the city of Memphis. Advices have been received that no less than sixty horses of the finest stock in the country will be at the track during the week, and compete in the several contests. The following horses are already at the track and under training: James Lap's b. h. Woolford, by imported Sovereign, dam Glencoe; Ed Smith's b h. Malcolm, by imported Bonnie Scotland, dam Lady Lancaster; Ed Smith's Queen of the West, by Bonnie Scotland, dam same mode; Capt. Hutchinson's b. m. Ruth, by Zero, dam Argentine; Mr. Warwick's b. h. Rochester, by imported Bonnie Scotland, dam Lady Lancaster; West & Vaughn's Maggie Bruce, by Lexington, dam Alice; West & Vaughn's Bee Farris, by Melbourne, dam Glencoe. It is anticipated that Mr. Coulisk's stable of four horses, Gilroy, Little Mack, Larkin and Victory, Mr. A. Keene Richards' stable of seven horses, A. Barne's stable of three horses, will all arrive to-day, while many others will reach the city during the week. The above will show that the coming races will be the finest ever witnessed in this section of the country.

PROGRESS.—Columbus sailed to the American coast in a four hundred ton ship, and first landed upon the island of St. Domingo. Last week a vessel from St. Domingo unloaded in New York over four hundred tons of St. Croix Rum for P. H. Drake & Co., of that city. This is but a few weeks' supply of this article, which these gentlemen use in the manufacture of the celebrated Plantation Bitters. We are informed by an exchange that Messrs. Drake & Co. have not advertised a dollar for a year, but that the sales of this article continue at the former enormous figure. In 1864, the receipts of the Plantation Bitters were equal to those of the New York and New Haven Railroad.

TO THE BUSINESS PUBLIC.

OFFICE OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC AND ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH COMPANY OF THE UNITED STATES,
MEMPHIS, TENN., October 22, 1868.

TO THE CITIZENS OF MEMPHIS:

The office of this Company is now open at No. 18 MADISON STREET for the transmission of messages, at reduced rates, to all points reached by its wires. In tendering the citizens of Memphis another facility for the transmission of messages, by which not only lower rates are obtained, but greater dispatch and promptness, and answers secured quicker, it should be borne in mind by all who use Telegraph wires, that only by sustaining a competing line can a continuance of lower rates be maintained. This is so self-evident that the Southern Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company confidently expect such full and steady patronage as will justify the establishment of this office at Memphis, and low rates.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, October 31, 1868.

FINANCE.

Money matters were active to-day and the demand for exchange was noticeably increased. This demand is confined principally to our dry goods houses, which are doing a very large business and are receiving new additions to their stocks daily. There is scarcely a large house in the city which is not represented in New York, Philadelphia or Boston, by some member of the firm who is buying as rapidly as the house here requires it, and exchange is remitted as rapidly as collected in payment of these goods. This demand for exchange is becoming heavier day by day and aggregates a very large sum weekly. Complaints are still made about the delay in receiving currency per express. One bank alone has nearly $200 000 several days past due from the East and this delay causes no little inconvenience. There is also a scarcity of small bills which is severely felt in the ordinary business of the day. Our banks are well provided with exchange upon all points and their engagements extending well into the middle of next week, are almost as large as they can comfortably handle. Rates are steady. Buying at ½ to ¾ discount. Selling at par to ¼ discount. New Orleans bills are taken at the same as Eastern, with little or no demand from outsiders.

City bonds are about the same as yesterday. A few were offered by a dealer at 53c, but we do not know that they were taken. Upon orders 52½c would be about brokers offering rates, as they generally make commissions out of the seller.

Gold opened in New York at 134 and closed at 133¾. There is very little offering in this market and dealers are buying at New York rates. Selling at 135@136

City scrip is in demand at 80@81c, while tax payers buying small amounts find it difficult to purchase at less than 84@85c. A large business was done at the City Tax Collector's office yesterday, and his collections for the week will probably foot up better than for the week previous.

County warrants are decidedly weak. Brokers are holding off in most cases, but one or two who are not well provided were on the market offering 63@64c for desirable pieces. Selling to tax payers at 65@67c as to amount.

Police scrip is firm at 82c buying. Selling at 85@86c.

School scrip is in demand and scarce. Buying at 85@87c. Selling at 90@93c.

Dr. Jones, the Superintendent of the mint at Charlotte, thinks the gold mines of North Carolina are now yielding about $500,000 annually. Gold is found in twenty-five counties of the State.

Late advices from Washington say that the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, upon which he is now engaged, "will not be found to be as favorable as the balance sheets heretofore submitted." Certainly not. Who expects it will ever be favorable until there shall have been a change in the party in power?

COTTON.

The Liverpool market at the opening to-day was dull and tending downward. Uplands 11d; Orleans 11¼d; and closed higher—Uplands 11@11¼ on spot and 10¾ afloat; Orleans 11¼@11¾. Sales 20,000 bales, including 8000 sold after market hours yesterday. The New Orleans market at the opening was quiet but firm; middlings 23½.

In New York the market opened quiet but steady. At noon was unchanged and closed with a better demand. Low Middlings nominally 24½; Middlings 25½; Orleans 26½; Good Middlings 26½. Sales 3000 bales. Week's sales 25,000 bales. Week's receipts 5600 bales. Gross receipts 22 235 bales. Exports since September 1st, 28 900 bales. Stocks 18 000 bales. Receipts at all U. S. ports for the week 65 000 bales.

Our market was quiet early in the day and holders were weakening but the closing advices caused considerable inquiry as well as firmness, and prices at the close were fully ¼c better. Among the sales were 23 bales ordinary at 20½c; 30 good ordinary 21¾; 209 low middling at 22c; 21, 31, 98, 85, 56, 93, 39, 39 at 22½; 43, 52, 12, 60 and 11 at 22¾; 42, 65, 75 and 24 of middlings at 22¾c; 2 65, 46, 50, 5 and 12 at 23½; 65, at 23¾ 23 at 23¾; 5 strict middlings 23½c; 6 at 23½c.

The New York statement shows an increase in receipts over last week of 2235 bales, and an increase at all U. S. ports of 11,000. There is also an increase in stock of 3000 bales. The receipts at this port were 7844 bales heavier for the week than the corresponding week last year, while the month's receipts are larger by 21,838 bales than those of the same month last year. Middlings in this market on the 31st October, 1867, were quoted at 16½c.

TRADE.

We have no change to report in the general markets to-day. Prices are firm and receipts are light in all things—barely enough coming in to supply the demand. Corn is scarcer probably than any other article, there being, we may say, none on hand.

A line of steamers between some Italian port and New York is projected, to accommodate the increasing fruit trade.

Very heavy losses have been sustained by Western dealers in grain. $1,000,000 has been lost in Chicago within a week by the shrinkage in values of grain in store. All the small dealers have been broken up and large ones are tottering.

In 1860, the capital invested in manufactures in New England amount to $257,497,783, and the value of annual products from manufacturing was $468,599 087. In the same year, the capital invested in manufacturing in Pennsylvania was $190,055,904, and the value of annual products from this source was $299,121,188. The capital invested in manufactures in New Jersey is less than that invested in Connecticut by several millions of dollars.

The attempt to show that New England is not chiefly interested in the release of manufactures from taxation will not deceive any intelligent person. What delegation in Congress was most active in the effort to repeal the taxes on manufactures?

Think of it, tax payers. The value of annual products of the New England mills is $468,599,087. This is exempt from Federal taxation, and at the same time the manufacturers are "protected" by a prohibitory tariff

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

MEMPHIS, November 2.—Weather clear and cool. The river at this point is about on a stand, and is, as near as we can come at it for want of a city surveyor, at least twenty feet below high water mark. Hence to Cairo six feet is all that is reported; thence to St. Louis five and a-half feet is found. The Ohio is low, with little over three feet on Portland bar, and four feet out to Cairo. White river still falls slowly, with seven feet scant to Augusta. The Arkansas has three feet to Pine Bluff, and about thirty inches thence to Little Rock.

Arrivals.

Steamer Julia, St. Louis.
" Rubicon, Vicksburg.
" T. L. McGill, St. Louis.
" Clifton, Cincinnati.
" Mississippi, New Orleans.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" Des Arc, White river.
" Liberty, " "
" Ozark, Arkansas river.

Departures.

Steamer Julia, Vicksburg.
" Rubicon, St. Louis.
" T. L. McGill, New Orleans.

In Port.

Steamers Mississippi, Clifton, Natoma, Des Arc, Liberty, Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The popular and reliable United States mail packet Liberty, Capt. Rice, will leave usual to-morrow for all points on White river. She makes all connections. Mitt Harry and Charley Sharpe are her clerks.

The elegant Mississippi, Capt. Nat Green, Clerks Creighton and Langlois, will be found at the landing this morning, and will load to leave on Wednesday for New Orleans. Cotton shippers foster this line of packets. Give the Mississippi all of your cotton bound South, and make Nat feel as though he were getting a toe.

The Belle Memphis of the packet line leaves at 4 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis, connecting with the Northern and Eastern trains. John Crane is her popular master, and Bunker, of Rotterdam, is treasurer.

The independent Des Arc, Capt. John D. Elliott, came in yesterday. She will back out to day at 5 p.m. for Jacksonport and all way landings and will make quick time. In her office will be found Sir. Jo Miller and Matt Glass, both popular officers.

The gay United States mail packet Ozark, Capt. Blasdell, with Outlaw at the desk, will leave at her usual hour today for all points on the Arkansas river, making close connection with the packets for Little Rock and Fort Smith. The Ozark is light and swift as well as a good passenger boat.

The H. M. Shreve is the regular Vicksburg packet to-day. She leaves this evening. Carter is master and Worsham is her chief clerk.

Let every river man vote to-morrow. One vote has changed the whole complexion of an election, on more than one occasion. Capts. Fem. Calvert, W. C. Postlethwait and Larry Harmstad, have been appointed a committee to see that the rights of river men are secured to them.

The Luminary, Capt. Lockhart, with Lee Finney in the office, backs out to-day for Cairo and St. Louis.

The splendid passenger packet Natoma, Capt. John Lee, will back out on Tuesday for Friar's Point and way landings. Fields, Whitehead and Lee are her clerks.

The Clifton came in yesterday, after a tedious voyage, from Cincinnati. She leaves to-morrow with a full load of cotton. Capt. Stein commands and Mr.—— is clerk.

The Mississippi came in early yesterday evening from below. She did a large way business, and brought over fifty cabin passengers to this city, and yet some claim that local packets are of no benefit to us.

The T. L. McGill passed down yesterday afternoon. Though she had a light trip, Pat Yore was in good humor.

The Thompson Dean, Capt. J. H. Pepper, will pass down to-day for New Orleans. She is a monster steamer.

The Argos is due from the St. Francis. She will take the Hambleton's place tomorrow. Our friend Coffin, of Coffin Bros., is her Secretary.

The Commercial, Capt. Edson, with Jimmy Thompson in the office, leaves on Saturday next for Vicksburg, as a regular Memphis packet.

Capt. John Davis leaves in a day or two for Cairo, where he will inspect the Commercial and send her to this port. He will then proceed to St. Louis, where he will purchase a packet for the Arkansas trade, between the mouth and Pine Bluff, to run in connection with his White river line.

The Victor still lies as she sunk. Her engines, which are said to be excellent, will be taken out.

Joe Locke, 236½ Main street, has opened a river news agency, and will furnish Memphis dailies, stamped, for sixty cents a dozen.

The Argos will no doubt save all that can be saved from the wreck of the Mollie Hambleton.

The Bowling Green Democrat says: Capt. J. V. Sproule, Superintendent of the improvements on Green and Barren rivers, expresses the opinion that all necessary repairs on the Rochester lock will be completed in ten days or two weeks from this time. We are informed that the company, of which Judge W. H. Payne is President, proposes to stock the river with first class packets from here to Evansville and Louisville, as soon as these repairs are completed.

WOLFE'S

Schiedam Schnapps.

THE above Medicinal Beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at his distillery, in Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over three thousand letters from physicians, describing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
